

ASME
Young Composers Award
2009

Please photocopy and distribute to students

ENTRY FORM

Dear Music Teacher,

The ASME Young Composers Award is a wonderful way to further enhance your students' experiences in composition. With age appropriate categories, and sections catering for the composition of specific as well as flexible styles, this competition is sure to cater for your students' needs. All entrants receive feedback on their compositions, with selected entrants having the opportunity for their works to be performed at the awards concert and recorded to CD. It would be appreciated if you could display this poster and entry form in your school, where students are best able to access it.

The competition operates in two main categories:

SCHOOL CATEGORY for composers 18 years and under on January 1, 2009.

Section A: Composers in school Years 1-7

Section B: Composers in school Years 8-9

Section C: Composers in school Years 10-11

Section D: Composers in school Year 12

Section E: Rock and Popular Music with lyrics
Open to students up to age 18.

Section F: Sequenced, Rock/Pop Instrumental (no lyrics) for students up to age 18.

The school category is sponsored by Derringers Music, our 2009 major sponsor.

ADVANCED CATEGORY for composers 25 years and under on January 1, 2009.

Section G: Music for Schools - Solo Instrument or Voice (accompaniment optional)

Section H: Music for Schools - Instrumental Ensemble or Choir

Section I: Solo Instrument or Voice (accompaniment optional)

Section J: Ensemble or Choir

Note: Music for Sections G or H can be written for any age range up to and including Year 12. Please indicate a suitable age on the score.

Sponsors for the advanced category include Size Music and ByronMartinCPeng.

Entries Close: Friday, the 25th of September, 2009

Awards Concert: Monday, the 23rd of November, 2009
